PROJECT NAME	TYPE OF APPLICATION <input type="checkbox"/> STANDARD <input type="checkbox"/> SELF-CERTIFIED

All documents must have original signatures.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

This form must be completed prior to initial approval of a project as a standard 50/50 or self-certified project. An updated District Financial Plan is required prior to Phase III approval. Applicants using the standard application procedure must complete Parts I and II. Applicants using the self-certifying application procedure complete Parts I and III.

The applicant district is to complete each task referenced on this Checklist and enter any information requested in the spaces provided. If an answer is “zero” or “not applicable,” so state. Once completed and the information is certified by the District Representative or the Governing Board, as applicable, the District

Financial Plan is forwarded to the Office of Public School Construction.

To receive 50/50 or self-certifying status for any project, the District must be able to demonstrate its ability to fund a minimum of 50 percent of the estimated project cost from proceeds not otherwise available to the State Allocation Board. When districts list General Obligation bonds, they must have bonding authority and bonding capacity. The bonds must be encumbered if listed in Part I, C, below. Developer fees can be used to meet some or all of the District’s share of a standard 50/50 or self-certified project provided that the District is not subject to a matching share requirement on other projects (see Part I, D, below).
